

STATE OF WAR VIRTUALLY EXISTS

All Navigation Services
In the Adriatic Have Been Suspended

STRENGTHEN FRONTIER

Indications Are That Clash Between Italy and Austria
Is Not Far Off

SERBIAN ARMY BEGINS MARCH

LONDON, May 21.—(10:55 p. m.)—A state of war now virtually exists between Italy and her formal allies, Austria and Germany, although no formal declaration has been made. The Austrians are strengthening their frontier posts and all navigation services in the Adriatic have been suspended—indications that the clash is not far off. The Italian senate today indorsed the action of the chamber in granting the government extraordinary powers in the event of war, for which the whole country appears to be enthusiastic.

Serbian Army Active.
Simultaneously with the anticipated advent of Italy into the war, Serbia's reconstituted army has fully recovered from the campaigns which resulted in the Austrians being driven from Serbia and well armed and equipped, it is announced, has commenced a march toward the Austrian border bent on another invasion of Austrian territory.

Thus Austria is being attacked from all sides and has still another enemy, Roumania, in prospect for it and it has been an open secret for a long time that Italy and Roumania have an agreement to act in concert. Roumania however, is awaiting the conclusion of an agreement with Greece and Bulgaria, which also are expected to join the allies before she takes up arms. These anticipations explain the tremendous efforts that Austria and Germany are making to complete the defeat of the Russians, who, having been forced out of western Galicia and the Carpathians, now are offering stubborn resistance to the further advance of the Teutonic allies behind the San river and around Przemyel. Although the Germans have crossed the San north of Przemyel and the Austrians have advanced to the southeast of that town, they appear at last to have been brought to a halt, as today's reports from Berlin does not claim any further progress. Just to the north, in Poland, the Russians are carrying on a strong offensive and driving the Germans back and have at least partly exhausted the German flank in Galicia.

Russ Must Take Time.
However, after the way they have been driven back and the heavy artillery bombardment they have had to undergo the Russians must take some time to regroup the initiative. Since foggy weather has stopped the battles in the west the allies have confined themselves to attempts to improve and organize the positions gained and in this they claim to have been successful although the Germans state that all the allies' attacks have been repulsed. Unofficial despatches from Athens continue to report successes for the allies but official quarters remain silent—an attitude which meets with some criticism.

HALF GROWN YOUNGSTER ASSAULTS ITALIAN AMBASSADOR TO GERMANY

Boy is Seized by Passersby and Beaten Before Being Turned Over to Police—Government
Sends Apology.

Berlin, May 21, via London, May 22.—(1:25 a. m.)—Riccardo Bolletti, Italian ambassador to Germany, upon leaving the Italian embassy yesterday evening to go to a meeting at the Spanish embassy, was assaulted by a half grown youngster.

The boy was seized by passersby and beaten before he was turned over to the police.

The government immediately sent apologies to the ambassador for the incident. To deepest regret is expressed in Berlin at the occurrence. Precautions had been taken earlier to prevent any annoyance but as the day passed without the slightest evidence of trouble the detectives were withdrawn from the vicinity of the Italian embassy. Only a few women and youths were in the neighborhood when the incident happened.

INDICT HURLEY FOR MURDER.

Lincoln, Ill., May 21.—Dan Hurley, Jr., was indicted today for the murder of his sweetheart, Katherine Roller. Hurley is 16 years old; Miss Roller was 17. The girl died April 26th, after returning from a buggy ride with Young Hurley, to whom she was engaged to be married. An analysis of the girl's stomach resulted in the discovery of poison in sufficient quantities to cause death and Hurley's arrest followed.

TIMES AND DAILY MAIL ATTACK KITCHENER

UPHEAVAL OF POPULAR RESENTMENT
AGAINST PAPERS FOLLOWS

Stock Exchange Men Formally Burn
Copies of Papers and Adopt Resolutions Supporting Kitchener—
Other Meetings of Protest Being Planned.

London, May 21.—The British people talked of nothing yesterday but who should be members of the new coalition cabinet. Today, however, they were forgotten in the controversy over Lord Kitchener.

The Times and the Daily Mail attacked the competency of the war minister this morning and the impeachment of the Daily Mail was particularly fierce. An upheaval of popular resentment against these newspapers and their dominating spirit, Lord Northcliffe, quickly followed.

Plan Meeting of Protest.
The stock exchange men held an excited meeting, formally burned copies of the Times and the Daily Mail and adopted resolutions supporting Lord Kitchener. Other meetings of protest are being planned and a large section of the press has come to his support.

The Pall Mall Gazette says the attacks made on Kitchener have rendered him more powerful and popular than ever.

The criticism of Lord Kitchener appears to have had its first inspiration in a message last week from the Times' military expert, at British headquarters in France. The expert asserted that the British offensive has been crippled by a lack of high explosive shells and called for more shells.

Suggest Separate Departments.

When the proposed re-organization of the government was announced several newspapers suggested in considerate terms that, in attempting to raise and organize great volunteer armies and at the same time manage the equipment and supplies thereof, the war minister had taken upon his shoulder a heavier burden than any man could carry. They proposed that organization and supply should be made separate departments and opinion settled upon David Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer for the later work.

Some of the newspapers discussed the possibility of Lord Kitchener being made commander-in-chief of the armies in the field. The Daily Mail today, however, attacked Lord Kitchener's South African record as a fighting general and questioned his capacity to command an army in the European war. It also criticized adversely his methods of raising volunteers.

The Pall Mall Gazette in its issue of today defending Lord Kitchener says: "The name and personality of K. of K. (Kitchener of Kartum) are invaluable supports to the nation at home and abroad. He was invited to join the cabinet and give up his splendid work in Egypt. He did not thrust himself upon the cabinet. The country will not suffer indignity and insult to be heaped upon him."

May Announce Cabinet Monday.

The new cabinet's make-up will not be announced until Monday or Tuesday. The only appointment thus far known is that of Arthur Henderson, a Liberal member of the House of Commons, who will assume the portfolio of president of the local government board. This appointment meets with general approval.

The question of conscription has been brought prominently to the front by the new departure. The conservative press generally favors conscription but the liberal press opposes it chiefly on the ground that if it is adopted it will become permanent. A scheme for the registration of all men with a view to their use in whatever work they are needed is being discussed. A proposal that women be included in this scheme is finding favor.

ATHLETES FROM FOURTEEN COLLEGES IN PEORIA FOR MEET

PEORIA, May 21.—Athletes from fourteen colleges in Illinois are here tonight for the track meet of the "Little Sixteen," which opens tomorrow afternoon. The meet will be officially opened with trial heats in the 100 yard dash. In the heats Miller of Millikin, Friebe of Illinois and Moore of Shurtleff, are the main contenders for honors. Wilson of Illinois, who won the quarter and half mile runs is back again this year.

Burns of William-Vashit, who took second in the high jump last year, will compete with Mapes of Carthage, who took first last year.

BIRMINGHAM GETS MEETING.

Memphis, Tenn., May 21.—Birmingham, Ala., was chosen for the next meeting place of the Cumberland Presbyterian assembly, over Lincoln, Ill., by a vote of seventy to thirty. The assembly adopted a resolution endorsing the work of the Gideon organizations.

Reports of the various boards tonight were referred to committees.

MOST OF AMERICANS IN GERMANY ANNOUNCE INTENTION TO REMAIN

Only in a Few Isolated Cases Have Americans Departed as a Consequence of Recent Alarmist Reports.

Berlin, May 22.—Via London.—(2:45 a. m.)—The American consulates are now receiving answers to a postcard canvass order by the embassy a few days ago to determine the whereabouts and plans of Americans still in Germany in case of an emergency. Almost without exception Americans announced their intention to remain in Germany and not to abandon the businesses in which most of them were engaged.

The recent suggestion in London newspapers that the American ambassador in Berlin should be withdrawn as a protest in case adequate satisfaction was not given for the Lusitania affair has been much discussed but there seems to be slight disposition on the part of American business men here to close up their enterprises and withdraw even in this case. There are only a few isolated cases of Americans departing as a consequence of the recent alarmist reports.

The German reply to the Washington note regarding the Lusitania is slowly taken shape at a series of conferences at the foreign offices. Whether the note will contain any definite proposals for a solution of the problem is uncertain. It has been suggested here that if America insists on the right of its citizens to travel passenger steamers belonging to belligerents without risk of a submarine attack, an arrangement might be reached by which the American government would certify that the cargoes of such steamers contained no contraband. It is further suggested that certified steamers carry some distinguishing mark which would free them from the risk of being torpedoed without warning or giving the passengers and crew a chance to escape. However, whether this suggestion will be embodied in the final form of the note is not known.

ITALIAN SENATE PASSES BILL GIVING POWER TO GOVERNMENT

Vote, Which Virtually Assures Italy's
Entry Into War, Is Received With A Great Demonstration of Enthusiasm.

Rome, via Paris, May 21.—(8:55 p. m.)—The Italian senate this evening by a vote of 262 to 2, passed the bill of Premier Salandra granting plenary powers to the government in dealing with the situation which has arisen through Italy and Austria being unable to reach an agreement concerning the demands Italy has made upon Austria. When the vote which virtually assures Italy's entry into the war, was announced there was a great demonstration of enthusiasm in the senate chamber, shouts of "Long live Italy" intermingling with the cheering and handclapping of the senators, the ministers, army and navy officers and the people in the galleries.

King Victor Emmanuel and members of the royal household witnessed the demonstration.

Prince Colonna, the mayor of Rome, had been chosen to present the bill to the senate and his speech was frequently interrupted by applause. The mayor said he was proud to address the senate on an occasion so momentous for the country and for civilization. In the name of the people he asked the king and the parliament of the country to make a just war in order to deliver their oppressed brothers.

The bill was referred to a committee.

Meanwhile the senate took a recess. When the senate again convened the committee reported the bill favorably and it passed almost unanimously.

BELIEVE BRITISH ARGUMENT ON DETAINED CARGOES STRONG

Lively Exception Is Taken to Paragraph Devoted to a Defense of Action in Regard to Meat Shipments.

London, May 21.—(6:40 p. m.)—Representatives of shipping interests generally believe that the English government has a strong argument in the foreign office communication defending the policy of detained cargoes. Lively exception is taken, however, to the paragraph devoted to a defense of the government's action in regard to meat shipments.

The foreign office stated that negotiations for settlement of the cases had come to a standstill "owing to the exorbitant terms insisted upon by the representatives of the American packers."

One of the leading representatives on the American side in these negotiations declared that in this paragraph the British government had been wholly evasive and absolutely unfair.

PREPARE SHIPMENTS DIFFERENTLY

Chicago, May 21.—Shipments of meat for the Scandinavian countries are composed of different cuts and prepared differently from shipments to Great Britain, a spokesman for one of the Chicago packers explained tonight in discussing the liability of the British government to agree with representatives of the packers on a price for the meat shipments held up by Great Britain.

The total amount involved in the ships that are held up is several million dollars.

War News Summarized

The Italian senate by a vote of 262 to 2 has passed Premier Salandra's bill conferring plenary powers on the government in case of war with Austria. This measure had previously passed the chamber of deputies and the senate vote is virtually assured Italy's entry into the conflict.

It appears the Austrians consider that a state of war already exists. They have withdrawn their troops and customs guards from the frontier at Ponte Caffaro and Lodrone after destroying the bridges, the telegraph and telephone lines and the electric light apparatus.

Other bridges on the frontier have been mined.

With the expectation that Italy will enter the war at any moment the reconstructed Serbian army has commenced a march toward the Austrian border, it is announced. Austria being thus attacked from all sides and with the prospect that Roumania, Greece and Bulgaria will enter the war on the side of the allies of the Triple Entente, the Teutonic allies are making strenuous efforts to complete the defeat of the Russians who are resisting stubbornly behind the Dniester in east Galicia and around Przemyel.

The latest Austrian official statement says that on that part of the San running down from Sieniawa the Russian detachments still holding the west bank have been thrown back.

The Austro-German forces in stubborn night battles east of Drohobycz, have captured Neudorf. Vienna claims that the Russian counter-attack across the Dniester in east Galicia has come to a standstill on the Pruth line.

In the western theatre the allies are confining themselves to attempts to organize the positions they have gained, the inclement weather having stopped the battles.

ITALIAN FRONTIER TRANSFORMED INTO HUGE MILITARY ENCAMPMENT

Everywhere are Tents, Gun Carriages and Flags and the Intense Activity
Which Marks a Military Camp.

Udine, Italy, via Chisasso to Paris, May 21.—(6:40 p. m.)—From the Alps down to the sea, the whole vast region has been transformed into a huge military encampment. Everywhere are tents, gun carriages and flags and the intense activity which marks a military camp.

In the extended plains of Friuli, stretching along the sea, Italian sentinels near the frontier can see the ruins of Aquileia, a second Rome, founded by the Romans in 181 B. C. The Italian army officers have great difficulty in restraining the soldiers from crossing the frontier here, the men being anxious to reconquer Friuli, from which they were expelled, the first time of Italy.

The troops most anxious to fight are the Alpine soldiers, who are of the same type as the French Alpine Chasseurs. These men number sixty thousand and they have been chosen from among the strongest and bravest of the mountaineers. They are commanded by a selected set of officers who know all the secrets of the snow capped boundaries. The Alpine troops occupy all the passes, their motto being "no admittance through here."

Four of the best known Italian generals are here working day and night with their staffs. These men are Generals Frugones, who distinguished himself in Libya; Luzzacari, who is much admired by the troops; Nava, well known for his energy and Brusati, a brother of General Ugo Brusati, aid de camp to the king. The general opinion is that it would be almost impossible for decisive action through the well fortified Alpine region of the province of Trent, where an attack would have as its only object the keeping there of a large contingent of hostile troops. For the same reason a landing of Italian troops might occur on the Dalmatian coast it is said, or some contingent might go to help Montenegro and Serbia resume their offensive.

The conflict may find its solution in the valley of the Isonzo river in Eastern Friuli, according to military critics. The Italians, it is said, may advance with three main bodies from San Giorgio, Palmanova and Cormans, proceeding towards Gorizia, Gradisca and Monfalcone, having as their ultimate object Trieste.

DAUGHTER IS BORN TO SECRETARY AND MRS. WILLIAM G. M'ADOO

WASHINGTON, May 21.—A baby girl, the second grand child of President Wilson, was born tonight to Secretary and Mrs. William G. McAdoo. She will be christened Ellen Wilson, for the late Mrs. Woodrow Wilson.

The Secretary and Mrs. McAdoo, who is the president's youngest daughter, were married in the blue room at the white house just a year ago. Mr. McAdoo went to his office for the first time since he was operated upon for appendicitis nearly two months ago.

The president was at the McAdoo home when his grand daughter was born.

WILSON AND CABINET MEET FOR FIRST TIME SINCE APPROVING NOTE

In Absence of Definite News From Berlin There is No Discussion of Probable Contents of German Reply.

Washington, May 21.—President Wilson and his cabinet met today for the first time since they gathered ten days ago and approved the note which the United States subsequently sent to Germany as a protest against the sinking of the Lusitania, with the loss of more than one hundred American lives.

In the absence of any definite news from Berlin, there was no discussion, it was understood, of the probable contents of the reply which Germany is preparing.

When the cabinet met there had been published here a memorandum given out in London by the British foreign office saying the arrangements being made by Great Britain with American cotton interests for disposition of their cargo were understood to be acceptable to the United States. Later Secretary Bryan gave out a statement declaring that whatever had been done by representatives of the state department to assist the cotton interests had been of an unofficial and informal character and was not "to be construed as a recognition of the order-in-council," issued by Great Britain. Tonight Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador, issued a statement, explaining that this was also his understanding and suggesting that there had been some mistake in telegraphic transmission or erroneous impressions had been given British officials in London by representatives of the American cotton interests there. The United States has never received a reply to its note of March 30th, in which the British order-in-council, proclaiming an embargo on all neutral commerce directly or indirectly with Germany declared to be a violation of international law.

LASSEN PEAK ACTIVE; SENDS RIVER OF MUD DOWN MOUNTAIN

Residents of Hat Creek Valley Flee in Time and No Lives Are Lost.

Redding, Calif., May 21.—Lassen Peak's seething caldron, stirred perhaps by some mighty convulsion, bubbled over early today and sent a river of mud cascading down the mountain side.

Hat Creek Valley in the eastern part of Shasta county, was inundated. Some of the farms were in the path of the flood and several houses and considerable live stock were destroyed. Residents of the valley fled in time, however, and no lives were lost.

From shortly after midnight until one o'clock today, when the flow abated, the mud river moved thirty miles, sweeping away bridges and converting roads into morasses.

Warned by Fred Seaborn, a government forest ranger who galloped from the town of Hat Creek through the valley, ranchers and their families, scantily clad, took quick refuge on hillsides and escaped the flood.

At a place called Casel, the stream of volcanic substances branched off into a field of old lava boulders, the main stream continuing slowly down the valley. All the atmosphere was dense with smoke from the crater.

The eruption followed a spectacular outburst on Wednesday night when, for the first time, Lassen Peak spouted molten lava. An electric storm was raging here tonight. Black clouds obscured Lassen Peak and it could not be determined whether the crater was still active.

ADVOCATES EDUCATION OF FATHERS TO RESPONSIBILITY

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—

Bringing up fathers with a proper sense of their responsibility and federal aid for parents to as great an extent as it is granted to fathers were advocated here today at the conference of the National Congress of Mothers and Parent Teachers' associations. Mrs. Frederick Schoff, of Philadelphia, national president, said fathers "should be equally responsible with mothers for the home training of the children."

"It is as necessary to educate him to his responsibility," she declared, "as it is to educate the mother."

Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett of Washington, D. C., president of the National Federation of Women said that alien women immigrants should be cared for by women employed by the government instead of by men.

COMMITTEE REPORTS OCCUPY SESSION.

Rochester, N. Y., May 21.—Reports of committees on Christian Life and work and on church co-operation and union took up most of the afternoon session of the 127th general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States here today. Dr. Francis L. Patton, former president of Princeton University and former head of Princeton Theological Seminary, delivered an address in connection with the report of the Huss Semi-Millennial anniversary.

GIVES NUMBER OF WAR PRISONERS

Copenhagen, via London, May 22.—(3:45 p. m.)—The total number of war prisoners in Germany, according to the Frankfurter Zeitung, The paper says that this total includes 1,000,000 Russians; 250,000 French; 25,000 English; 50,000 Belgians and 50,000 Serbians.

FREQUENT CLASHES MARK EXAMINATION

WALSH AROUSES ROCKEFELLER TO EXPRESSIONS OF RESENTMENT

Rockefeller Demands That He Be Accorded Rights Accorded Other
Witnesses—Declines to Answer Questions.

Washington, May 21.—Frequent sharp clashes between John D. Rockefeller, Jr. and Chairman Walsh marked today's session of the industrial relations commission with Mr. Rockefeller again on the stand testifying about conditions in the Colorado coal fields. Although two members of the commission had protested against what they regarded as the hostile attitude of the chairman yesterday, Mr. Walsh throughout the day put the witness through a grilling examination, time after time, arousing him to expressions of resentment.

Walsh Is Sole Examiner.

Mr. Rockefeller demanded that he be accorded rights given other witnesses and firmly insisted that Chairman Walsh was seeking to inject to his questions implications against the Colorado Fuel & Iron company and its officers. Some questions he declined to answer as improper and others he characterized as useless. Chairman Walsh was the sole examiner today, other members taking no part in the questioning. Mr. Rockefeller will be on the stand again tomorrow. Before the session began the committee held an executive session at the instance of Commissioners Weinstock and Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, who frankly informed Chairman Walsh that they believed the attitude he assumed yesterday toward Mr. Rockefeller had the appearance of hostility.

Mr. Walsh said he had no intention of displaying hostility but that he was unusually interested in affairs connected with the Colorado strike and naturally could not restrain a tendency to conduct the examination vigorously. Mr. Rockefeller arrived at the hearing room with a prepared statement based on a disclosure yesterday that one of the jurors who convicted John R. Lawson, a member of the executive committee of the United Mine Workers of America, had inclusive sales privileges in the Colorado Fuel & Iron company camps. Mr. Walsh had appealed to the witness to intercede for Lawson and get him a new trial.

Rockefeller's Statement.

"Were I either directly or indirectly to attempt to influence the judiciary of Colorado, as respects the present appeal of Mr. Lawson's trial," said the statement, "I should be guilty of the very procedure against which witnesses before this commission have so strongly protested and which I myself have not less strongly condemned and I hope the chairman of the commission will not expect from me replies to any questions which imply that I believe others have been guilty of unlawful or improper acts in the administration of justice or that I entertain a position superior to that of any other citizen of the republic either before the law or toward its administration."

As to violence Mr. Rockefeller said where constituted authority failed to protect life and property the citizen was justified in using force for his own protection. In response to questions regarding responsibility for violence and use of military force during the strike, he declared, that the conduct of measures against the strike had been left to officers of the coal companies and that he personally could not pass upon the necessity for the use of force.

"But suppose you yourself, had to decide the question," demanded Chairman Walsh.

"I believe it is always proper to defend life and property," the witness replied.

"If the constituted authorities fail to do so, you would protect your life and property yourself?"

"Yes."

"And you would use force?"

"Would Use Force."

"Yes, all the force necessary to protect my life and property. I think anyone would do that."

Mr. Rockefeller reiterated his belief in the right of labor to organize, asserting that he believed in it as firmly as he did that capital should organize. He said he had made no personal effort to bring about an interview between officials of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company and union officers during the recent strike, though he thought he would not have had objection to such an interview.

ROOSEVELT JURY STILL DEADLOCKED

Returns Conditional Verdict and Is Sent Back By Court

DISAGREE ON THE COSTS

First Finding Favors Defendant
Providing Court Costs Are Divided Evenly

NO FURTHER WORD FROM JURY

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May 21.—The jury in the trial of William Barnes' suit for libel against Theodore Roosevelt was deadlocked tonight after once having returned a conditional verdict in favor of the former president which supreme court Justice William S. Andrews refused to receive. The condition which made the verdict an improper one, was that the trifling court costs and disbursements should be divided between the two principals in the action.

That the jury would be held over until Monday, should it fail to find a proper verdict by tomorrow was considered improbable by attorneys connected with the case.

The deadlock was the result of Juror No. 11—Edward Burns, a Syracuse motorman and a Republican—announcing in substance that if the costs and disbursements were not divided he favored a verdict for the plaintiff.

No Word From Jurors.

Tonight, after the proposal of putting the costs upon one of the principals had been under consideration for more than ten hours, no word had come from the jury room to indicate that the jury stood otherwise than it did when it was sent back to its room.

The jury was in court twice today. Soon after Justice Andrews opened court this morning he received a note from the jurors informing him that a "peculiar situation had arisen" and asking that he confer with them in the jury room. Justice Andrews had the jury brought into court and informed them that anything he could rightly do to aid them in reaching a decision must be done in open court.

Return to Room.

The jurors whispered among themselves and then requested that they be allowed to return to their room for further deliberation.

Nearly an hour afterward word came from the jury room that a decision had been reached. In open court the foreman, Warren W. Somers, a grocer, announced almost in a whisper that a verdict had been found for the defendant.

The spectators started for the exits. Then Mr. Somers, in a voice that could not be heard at the far side of the courtroom, went on to say that the verdict was for the defendant upon the condition that he pay half and the plaintiff pay half the costs.

Justice Andrews declared the verdict improper. The foreman suggested a poll. It was taken and Juror No. 11, in a loud voice said emphatically:

Court Adjourns.

At five o'clock the jury was still out. So court was adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. The jurors were informed that should they reach a verdict before 10 o'clock they could seal it and turn it over to a court attendant and then return to their homes until opening of court in the morning when their decision would be announced. Should they fail to agree they would be locked up for the night. Juror No. 11 sent a messenger to his home with a note reading, it was said, that Mr. Burns would not be home before tomorrow.

The Barnes Roosevelt trial which has been in progress in Syracuse for the past six weeks dragged to such a length that the public at large lost interest. The desire of the jury to find for the defendant and divide costs is almost equivalent to a draw. Anyhow, the trial has been somewhat illuminating upon New York state politics and neither complainant or defendant appears any greater in the public mind than before the trial began.

A delegate at the mother's congress and the parent teachers' association in national convention at San Francisco yesterday proposed the greatest work yet for the organization—the training of fathers. The theory advanced was that fathers should be just as responsible for the home training of children as are the mothers. This cannot happen until the order of things is so changed that the father's responsibility for the daily bread of the household is lessened and he spends more than the evening and night hours in the home.

Certainly a deep solemnity will mark every marriage by "proxy" in the war stricken countries of Europe where special provisions have been made to legalize such ceremonies. Small wonder that tears rather than smiles are the lot of these war time brides, for the marriage by proxy simply serves to emphasize the thought that the bride of the day is very likely to be the widow of the morrow.

A Paris dispatch tells of the marriage of Alfred Loring, a Paris attorney, who is now a soldier in the Seventh infantry, at the front and who was represented by his friend, Firmin Souin. The bride was Miss Marie Marigny. The ceremony was performed in strict privacy, and the bride wept as she made the responses.

President Wilson on the Y. M. C. A.

"You can test a modern community by the degree of its interest in its Young Men's Christian Association. You can test whether it knows what road it wants to travel or not; you can test whether it is deeply interested in the spiritual and essential prosperity of its rising generation. I do not know of any test that can be more conclusively applied to a community than that."

National Observance of Flag Day.

Special significance is to be given the national convention of the American Flag Day Association, which will be held in Chicago soon. Many patriotic leaders will gather to boom the adoption of "Flag Day" June 14th, throughout the nation. It was on June 14, 1777 that Congress resolved that the American flag should consist of 13 stripes, alternate red and white, and that the union be designated by 13 stars, white on a blue field, representing a new constellation. The organization plans to spread the observance this year of the anniversary and especially because of the momentous times through which the country is now passing. A spokesman for the association said recently:

"We are now in the midst of an anxious time in all our nation, again calling for an expression of our most sincere devotion to the Flag of our country, and what it stands for. The stars and stripes, have come to possess new beauty for friendly eyes and new terror for the foes of liberty, and of law and order, and of lawful government."

"Since the struggle of 1861-1865, the Flag has become the symbol of a mighty nation. It has been carried to the utmost parts of the earth carrying liberty wherever it has been thrown to the breeze. At this time of the great European war, the limits of its baleful influences are not confined to the theatre of the awful conflict, but our own country is in danger of being involved in its consequence, and patriotism and love of our wonderful country is called for more than ever, that we may be watchful against those who would involve us and do us ill."

Conan Doyle's Birthday.

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, famous English author and traveler, best known in America through his "Sherlock Holmes" detective stories is 56 years old today. Like most other prominent writers of the day in Europe, he is devoting his pen to the arguments of war. Sir Arthur was born in Edinburgh on May 22, 1859, the eldest son of Charles Doyle, an artist, nephew of Richard Doyle, famous in the publication of "Punch" and grandson of John Doyle, a great caricaturist in his day. He was educated at Stonyhurst and Edinburgh University, and became a physician. While practicing medicine at Southsea, he wrote his first novel, "A Study in Scarlet," which was a success. In 1890 he began his extensive travels which brought him into the Arctic regions and down to the West Coast of Africa. His first "Sherlock Holmes" stories came out in 1891. So great was the demand that he published a second book of the unique mystery stories two years later, and has given us two more volumes of the remarkable feats of the hero Holmes. He wrote the justification of the Boer War from the British viewpoint, and the book was translated into twelve languages and distributed free throughout the world. Many other books came from his busy pen, several of which were well received. His recreations are golf, cricket and cycling. He has mixed somewhat in politics, and once campaigned as a tariff reformer. He was knighted in 1902.

Those High School Sweaters.

The sweater controversy at the high school seems to be more a matter of school discipline than the subject for a vast amount of newspaper publicity. According to the statement made by Supt. Collins the boys sometime ago agreed that they would abide by the ruling of the superintendent and the board of education and would not accept the sweaters until the close of the school year, when their acts would not constitute a violation of the rules of the athletic association, membership in which seems desirable for the school.

Recently, no doubt from thoughtlessness, because lessons for the term are over and the work of the year had practically closed, a number of the boys applied for and received their sweaters. Those who took this action have been declared to have violated their agreement and to have transgressed the rules laid down by the superintendent and the board.

Certainly any rules adopted by the school authorities for the conduct of pupils must be observed or school discipline will be a thing of the past. The whole controversy seems to have originated over happenings somewhat insignificant of themselves, but at the present time the question of the authority of the school superintendent and officials and certainly it is their right to give orders and to have the orders obeyed.

Good Roads Vs. Disease.

The Joliet News declares that good roads prevent disease and says that few persons on first thought would see any possible connection between good roads and good health. Yet the state board of health of Kansas says that good roads can and will prevent disease. How? By the removal of weeds and trash. Weeds and trash prevent the prompt evaporation of moisture and promote retention of ground water. This makes ideal breeding spots for mosquitoes, flies and other insects, which are known as disease carriers not of mention chinch bugs,oppers and other insects which are crop damagers. Furthermore, an underground growth of weeds invites the dumping of garbage and manure by offering concealment, of which fact careless and thoughtless people are prone to take advantage, thus increasing the facility of insect breeding and providing these insect carriers with proper material for disease transmission.

Good roads also prevent disease by providing good drainage. Many farms have no means of drainage except by ditches along roadways. Open ditches, clear of brush and debris, with hardened surface and proper fall, afford these farms the opportunity of ridding themselves of many a stagnant pool. The removal of weeds, proper road grading, surface hardening and oiling, insures prompt drainage of all pool, ditch and surface water, removing the possibility of insect breeders, for none can multiply without moisture. Road filling in itself is destructive of insect larvae, especially mosquitoes—a well known fact.

JUSTICE TAKES CASE AGAINST OFFICIALS UNDER ADVISEMENT

Jurist Indicates He Will Occupy Some Time Considering Case but Will Endeavor to Dispose of it Before July 1.

Washington, May 21.—At the conclusion of five days of argument, Justice McCoy of the District supreme court took under advisement today the motion of the government to dismiss the suit brought by the Riggs National bank to enjoin Secretary McAdoo, Comptroller of the Currency Williams and Treasurer Burke, from alleged persecution of the bank. Relief sought by the plaintiff pending litigation was denied by the court, except as to the payment into the treasury of $5,000 interest on bonds due the bank and withheld to cover penalties imposed by the comptroller for failure to furnish certain reports. A temporary restraining order against the payment of this money into the treasury was granted at the outset of the proceeding and the court later will pass upon the question of continuing it.

Justice McCoy indicated that he would occupy some time considering the case, but would endeavor to dispose of it before July 1st. In denying the prayer for an injunction pending litigation he said that without considering what evidence might hereafter be presented there was nothing in the record before him now which showed the government officials had exercised arbitrary power or power arbitrarily in regard to the refusal to select the Riggs bank as a reserve agency.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS.

Boston.—That more than thirty women have served as Mayor of cities is the declaration of Alice Stone Blackwell, the suffragist leader, who takes exception to the reports that an Illinois woman recently elected is the second woman to serve in a high office. "Generally speaking," continues Miss Blackwell, "they have served so quietly, smoothly and successfully that nothing about them has got into the papers outside their own states. A long series of women have been chosen mayors in Kansas in the smaller cities. Occasionally a full city government of women has been elected. Several women mayors have served in Oregon and other far western states. Since the British Parliament, in 1907 made women eligible, many women have been elected councillors, three have been chosen mayors and one in Scotland, Lord Provost. Mrs. Lee, Mayor of Oldham, England, is so much beloved in her city that when a street car strike occurred she succeeded in bringing about a settlement, and conducted the first car through the city herself."

Seattle.—Threatened with deportation, which means suicide in her own country, and asking only the right to live, Ah Fak, a comely Chinese woman of 26, recently sought police protection here. She came to Seattle ten years ago and married Eng Yan, a Chinese merchant, in Chinese custom. Her marital troubles brought about a separation, and her husband has offered a reward for information as to her whereabouts and declaring she is a subject of deportation. The Chinese custom would oblige her to end her own life, should she be deported, she said, for a discarded wife is without social standing in the Orient.

Brooklyn.—Society women of Brooklyn will stage tomorrow and Saturday the Brooklyn Historical Pageant, the biggest show of the kind that the Borough has ever seen. Events since the first settlement here 200 years ago will be portrayed by the society women in a dozen episodes of spectacular beauty. Mrs. August Dreyer is head of the pageant committee. The schools, military and civic organizations have joined with the society women in the presentation.

Salem, Ore.—The remarkable political career of Miss Fern Hobbs, who, as secretary of former Governor Oswald West, put the saloons of Copperfield, a wild border town, out of business, and became nationally famous, will be brought to a close, at least temporarily, tomorrow, when she retires as a member of the state industrial accident commission. She offered her resignation if the legislature did not amend the workmen's compensation act, and when the amendments failed, held true to her word. She sacrifices a $3,600 position for a principle.

Vienna, Austria.—Countess Stephano, the second daughter of the late King Leopold of Belgium, who will reach her 31st birthday tomorrow, is among the most active of the royal Red Cross nurses in Europe. She is drowning the sorrows of tragedy and royal edicts in her present work. Her home is on the Austrian frontier at the Castle of Orosvar. When a young girl a marriage was arranged for her with Rudolph, the Crown Prince of Austria. Rudolph's habits and character were the gossip of Europe. Princess Stephano was exceedingly beautiful, but proud and headstrong, and little inclined to bear with patience the scandalous conduct of Rudolph. The union lasted eight years and a daughter was born. Then came the tragedy of the Crown Prince's death. Shortly afterward the Princess fell in love with a Hungarian nobleman, Count Lonyay, and she married him despite the resentment of King Leopold and the Emperor Joseph. Her father would not permit her to her mother's funeral. She has not been at court since the wedding of her daughter, Princess Elizabeth in 1902. She was reduced in rank, and has found her present station difficult to endure. She further aroused the wrath of her father by inventing a chaffing dish and putting it successfully on the market. But she demonstrated that she possesses her father's rare business ability.

The First Butcher

In days of old, when Knight's were bold;
And eggs were high—so we've been told;
A Butcher Man of fearless mein,
Beought the King, in hope to gain
Favor expressed in Royal decree,
That would permit him to start a meat-erie.
The King, impressed by his appeal,
Said yes—and ordered a roast of veal.
And this you see—so the story ran,
Was the beginning of Your Butcher Man.

DR. CARSON

Chicago Specialist

In the treatment of Chronic Disease, will be at the Dunlap Hotel, Jacksonville, Ill., Wednesday, May 26th, 8 a. m. to 1 p. m. (Returns every 28 days).

Fourteenth Successful Year in Jacksonville. Consultation and Examination Free

I treat successfully the cases I undertake and accept no fee from those who are incurable. That is why I continue my visits year after year, while other specialists make only a few visits and cease to return.

IS THIS THE WAY YOU FEEL? •

Tired in the morning and easily excited? Are you dizzy or nervous? Have you a "lump" in the throat? Have you Catarrh—nose stopped up? Gas on the stomach? Hands and feet cold? Pain in the hands? Have you a "de" dragging pain or ache of the body, back or limbs? Have you Rheumatism? Have you Flatulency? Piles—itching or bleeding? Have you kidney or bladder trouble, lame or weak back, pains in back or limbs? Have you any blood disease—scrofula, skin eruptions, pimples, bone pains, pale complexion and losing weight?

I invite you to call and investigate the Carson System of the treatment of Chronic Disease, which I have perfected after fifteen years of experience and study, and you will be convinced that my modern, up to date methods of curing disease are what you need.

Never before has there been a treatment giving such universal satisfaction. Every sufferer is cordially invited to call and secure full details concerning this new treatment free of charge.

REMEMBER DATE OF VISIT. Come early as parlors are always crowded.

A friendly call may save you future suffering. It has made life anew to thousands who had been pronounced beyond hope.

C. W. CARSON, M. D., 766 Oakwood Blvd., Chicago, Ill.

Experience makes perfect. Having treated hundreds of old chronic stomach troubles for the last fifteen years, I can relieve a great majority of these cases and restore them to health and strength again, especially in those cases who suffer from the effects of pain in the stomach and bowels, bloating, gas, spitting up of food, sour stomach, headache, dizziness, loss of appetite, drowsiness and heavy, bad feeling in the head.

PHASE—Every case guaranteed cured without detention from business or use of knife.

Private Diseases a Specialty!

NERVOUS DEBILITY—Are you nervous, despondent, weak, tired mornings, no ambition, poor memory, easily fatigued, excitable and irritable, eyes sunken, red and blurred, pimples on the face, dreams restless, haggard looking, weak back, deposit in urine, drains at stool, distrustful, want of confidence, lack of energy and strength.

MISS CRANDALL GIVES FIGURES ON PUBLIC HEALTH NURSING

Answers to Questions Recently Propounded by Jacksonville Citizens—Records Show that Many Cities are Engaged in the Laudable Work.

At the Public Health luncheon held recently when Miss Ella Crandall was the speaker a number of questions were asked by Mayor Rodgers and various citizens with reference to the status of public health work and nursing in other cities, especially of about the same size as Jacksonville.

Miss Crandall, who is secretary of the National Organization for public health nursing, with headquarters in New York City, has recently sent answers to the questions propounded at the luncheon and other facts relating to the work in which health organization are engaged.

"A summary of public health organizations shows that there are in the State of Illinois 39 organizations in 25 cities and towns, which are carrying on school and tuberculosis nursing activities. Owing to its extreme size, Chicago stands in a class by itself, and for this brief study it will be treated separately. It has 3 organizations which employ 224 nurses; of these 110 are school nurses; 40 are tuberculosis nurses. These are all supported by the City. The 74 remaining nurses are on the Visiting nurses association's staff, most of whom care for tuberculosis bed patients.

"Outside of Chicago there are 36 organizations in 24 cities or towns, having a combined population of 543,973. Separately the populations range from 2,451 in the smallest town to 66,950 in the largest town. These 36 organizations employ 46 nurses, the majority having but 1 nurse each, 7 supporting 2 and 3 nurses each. Of the 46 nurses 16 are doing school work, 26 are caring for tuberculosis patients, and 4 combine school and tuberculosis activities. 16 nurses are under boards of education, 7 are with anti-tuberculosis associations, 3 are under hospital supervision, and 20 are on the staffs of general public health organizations.

"The school nurses have the supervision of 135 public schools and 52,045 pupils; 3 parochial schools, and 900 pupils. In Chicago there are 72 parochial schools having 30,888 pupils, making a total of 70 parochial schools, and 31,788 parochial children. There are in Chicago 273 public schools with 276,268 pupils, making a total of 498 public schools in the state, and an enrollment of 328,313 public school pupils, or 483 schools of both kinds and 360,101 pupils. These school figures do not show the entire numbers of schools and pupils in the state having supervision of school nurses, as 8 of the cities failed to report on the number of schools and number of pupils.

"Of the 24 cities and towns 12 municipalities are paying the nurses services in whole or in part, ten are paying nothing, two failed to answer this question. With Chicago there are 25 cities and 13 municipalities paying the nurses services in whole or in part.

"In the state at large other forces are in the public health nursing field, besides those mentioned above. The Metropolitan Life Insurance Company have in 12 cities, twelve or more independent nurses; for their industrial policy holders; they care for all general cases including tuberculosis. There are 4 infant welfare nurses, 1 general public health nurses who do not take tuberculosis cases, and one industrial nurse. In Chicago there are 22 infant welfare nurses; 38 industrial nurses, 12 obstetrical nurses and 20 hospital social service nurses, making a total for the state of 25 cities; 82 organizations, and 383 nurses.

Questions and Answers.

Question No. 1. First, how many towns of 15,000 to 20,000 in Illinois are doing public health nursing, how many school nursing, how many tuberculosis nursing, and how many are doing school work at public expense; also how many pay for medical inspection as well as school nursing.

Answer—See Summary of Public Health Nursing Service accompanying these questions.

Question No. 2.

The next question has particular local importance just now. Is there any town where the Board of Education pays for the nurse and the Board of Health pays for the medical inspector and, if so, is there any place where the medical inspector and city physician are the same person? That plan seems to be the most probable and workable in Jacksonville at present.

Answer: A—No. B—Not in Illinois so far as we know.

Question No. 3. They also want to know how many school nursing services are under Boards of Health and under Boards of Education. If there are almost none in Illinois (Illinois has no law providing either for inspection or nursing) will she give the same information regarding some other nearby states?

Answer: Boards of Health, 1. Chicago. Boards of Education, 16. General Associations, 4.

WILL ENTER ANNAPOLIS.

Francis Hook Gilmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Gilmer of New Orleans, La., has passed the entrance examinations and will soon enter the U. S. naval academy at Annapolis, according to word received in Jacksonville by the lad's uncle, M. C. Hook. The examination was a hard one and as young Gilmer is but sixteen or slightly past, the honor for him is all the greater. Mrs. Gilmer was formerly Miss Nora Hook of this city.

A TUMBLE DOWN STAIRS.

Francis Griffith, four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Griffith, 131 Hardin avenue, is suffering from head and face injuries received in a fall from the stairs. The little boy tumbled into a large jar at the side of the stairway in flight and struck his head on the edge as he fell. He is doing well and in the future doubtless will attempt no more such "high dives."

Joyful Anticipation of Motherhood

There is apt to be a latent apprehension of distress to mar the complete joy of expectation. But this is quite overcome by the advice of so many women to use "Mother's Friend." This is an external application designed to soothe the muscles and to thus relieve the pressure reacting on the nerves, that the natural strain upon the cords and ligaments is not accompanied by those severe pains said to cause nausea, morning sickness and many local distresses. This splendid embrocation is known to a multitude of mothers.

They have used it during the period when they could realize the value of timely and helpful advice. That is why they recommend it.

Many people believe that those remedies which have stood the test of time, that have been put to every trial under the varying conditions of age, weight, general health, etc., may be safely relied upon. And judging by the fact that "Mother's Friend" has been in continual use since our grandmother's earlier years and is known throughout the United States it may be easily inferred that it is something that women talk about and gladly recommend to prospective mothers.

"Mother's Friend" is prepared only in our own laboratory and is sold by druggists everywhere. Ask for a bottle to-day and write for a special book for expectant mothers. Address: Bradford Regulator Co., 507 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

It should be remembered that what is said of "Mother's Friend" is the thought expressed by the thousands of women who have successfully used it and recommended it through two generations.

"A PICNIC IN FAIRYLAND"
GIVEN BY HELPING HAND SOCIETY

Cantata Rendered by Organization of Mt. Emory Baptist Church.

Thursday evening in Company B hall the Helping Hand society of Mt. Emory Baptist church, under the direction of Mrs. John McCree rendered a children's cantata entitled, "A Picnic in Fairy Land," text by Harriet D. Castle and music by E. S. Lorenze, eighty children participating.

The stage throughout the scene represented a woodland. The entire program was a grand success and the whole company did extremely well. Bernice Scruggs as fairy queen, Ira Mallory as May queen, Ellenora Lafayette as gypsy queen are deserving of especial mention, while the work of little Thora McCree, the leader of the fairies captivated the audience by her beautiful voice and charming actions.

The following was the cast of characters:

Fairy Queen—Bernice Scruggs.

Fairies: Thora McCree, Vivian Blue, Beatrice Trumbo, Bernice Mosley, Etta Mae Braunnen, Jennie Price, Olla Johnson, Louise Price, Josephine Lillard, Laura Johnson, Pearl Berry, Ray Keuchler, Margaret Wilson and Helen Majors.

Elves: Artis Brooks, Daniel Tinsley, Edward Brannen, Leslie Brinkman, Fred Davis, Edward Mallory, Robert Trumbo, Eugene Hayden, Roy Brannen, Charles Keuchler, Leland Wilson, Bud Mosley, Howard Majors, Clyde Hayden.

Gypsy Queen—Ellenora Lafayette.

Queen of the May—Ira Mallory.

Attendants—Marie Brannen, Emma McDaniel, Katherine Malone, Ellenora Lynch.

Maid of Honor—Frances McDaniel.

Trumpet Bearer—Ruby Parush.

Chosen Bearer—Esther Mae Dugan.

Scepter Bearer—Hellen Howard.

Flower girls: Fee Lynch, Hazel Wilson, Anna Davis, Lillian Price.

Train Bearer—Robert Le Von, Alma Guthrie.

May pole dancers—Jennie Howard, Frances Lunn, Grace Shaw, Lucille Allen, Reon Hamilton, Carrie Lee Brinkman, James Yates, James McDaniels, James Scott, Ervin Moore, George Davis, Murrel Reed, Mortals: Jennie Rodgers, Helen Waggoner, Arlette Sheroy, Helen Jones, Mable Price, Wilbur Reed, John Douglass, William Berry, Edward Berry.

Much credit is due Mrs. McCree as she had full direction of everything even the making of the scenery which was very pretty. Miss Margaret DeWitt acted as pianist for the evening in a very creditable manner.

SEVERE STORM AT
MASON CITY THURSDAY

Vast Amount of Damage Done By the Wind.

Thursday night Mason City was visited by an unusually severe storm which did a great deal of damage.

Dr. F. A. McCarty who was there, said it took place about eleven o'clock at night and was on the nature of a cyclone with a narrow path through the southeast part of the place where large trees were uprooted and a park badly wrecked. One tree was picked up and thrown right across the roof of the residence of Albert Richard, smashing the roof badly. The dairy barn of C. E. Chamblin was demolished and two barns on the place of W. T. Ainsworth.

Dr. McCarty said yesterday morning he passed by the ruins of the Chamblin barn and in the midst stood a bull which was there during the storm and though the barn was torn away from the animal he was unhurt. In the Ainsworth residence the windows on the west side were sucked in, the slates were torn from the roof and other damage was done. The residences of Charles McAffary and Ralph Ainsworth were also badly injured. In the home of W. T. Ainsworth glass was blown from the windows into the furniture and a lamp shade was lifted from an electric light and laid on the floor uninjured.

From another house the steps were hurled a long distance and flower pots on the porch uninjured. The storm took the usual course toward the northeast.

MANY TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE J. BART JOHNSON

PIANO SALE

The people were slow to get in to the store on the rainy days, but took advantage of the beautiful weather yesterday. Prices don't count for so much in the paper as they do right on the piano, where you can make a comparison in price, design, workmanship and quality. Consequently the patrons yesterday that called at the store, decided that the prices and quality were too good to let go. So the salesmen were busy selling. If you intend buying a player or piano, come in and buy now. The $2,000.00 reason is our theme, and you profit by the project.

WOODMEN PAY LOSS.

J. Earl Vasconcellos, secretary of Jacksonville camp, No. 912, M. W. A., yesterday forwarded to Mrs. William Buckley of Champaign a check for $2,000, as indemnity for the death of her husband April 20 in Champaign.

IMPROVEMENTS AT CHAPIN.

Squire P. P. McKinney of Chapin was a visitor in the city Friday. He thinks Chapin is improving right along. Clarence Duckett is having erected a two story hotel of cement blocks which are being moulded for that purpose, and the house when ready for occupancy will be a credit to the town.

Brief News Close to Home

Holiday for Banks—The banks of Decatur have announced that beginning with June they will close Thursday afternoon during June, July and August.

Can't Locate Captain—Champaign county officials are continuing their efforts to locate W. D. Mitchell, former night captain of the Champaign police force, who is wanted on a charge of running an automobile without the owner's permission.

Is 93 Years Old—Mrs. Sarah Catton, one of Virginia's oldest and most respected inhabitants, quietly celebrated her ninety-third birthday anniversary at her home Tuesday, when her sons and daughters, with their families enjoyed a dinner.

Jumps Down Shaft—Michael Rene, treasurer of the local miners' union at Duquoin, committed suicide by jumping head foremost down the shaft of the Buckner mine near there. His accounts are being examined.

Snow in May—A Peoria item says that John A. Reed of that place was planting corn on a farm in Brimfield township, Peoria county, forty-eight years ago Wednesday when he was interrupted by a snow storm which covered the ground to a depth of three inches.

Woman as Deputy—Mrs. George Graybill of Decatur has been appointed deputy internal revenue collector by Collector J. L. P. Kering of Springfield, to succeed Miss Finnigan, who goes to Pickering's office in Springfield. Mrs. Graybill will take the office June 1.

James Hopkins Dead—James K. Hopkins, 69 years old, of Princeton, Ill., president of the State Board of Agriculture, ex-officio president of the Illinois State Fair association, and one of the most prominent farmers in Illinois, died at Wesley hospital in Chicago Wednesday.

Allowed $102,058 for Loss—At a meeting with the adjusters, Mr. C. A. Wait, owner of the hotels recently destroyed by fire at Decatur, was allowed $102,058. That will go a long way toward putting up a new building, or in case the gentleman concludes to retire from the hotel business.

Quit Chewing: Saved Money—Sixteen hundred and fifty cents—that's what W. M. Cory of Pittsfield has saved during the past three years by quitting the use of chewing tobacco. Recently he took a quart can full of dimes to the Farmers' bank and when they were counted the above number was found.

Editor Dies—Edward M. Garlick, since 1868 editor of various Tazewell county newspapers, died Wednesday.

EUROPEAN WAR NOTES

Paris, May 21.—(5:10 p. m.)—Madame Poincaré, wife of the president visited the American ambulance hospital today. She was received by Mrs. William G. Sharp, wife of the American ambassador.

London, May 21.—(9:27 p. m.)—"There was a lively bombardment yesterday of the Dardanelles, directed principally against numerous Turkish camps at Komu Burnu, on the Asiatic side," says Reuters Athens correspondent. It is stated that Chanak Kalesi has been completely destroyed and that the town of Gallipoli, on the European side of the waterway has been badly damaged.

Paris, May 21.—(5:50 p. m.)—General Joffre, the French commander-in-chief, has approved the issuance by the commissary department of a tenth part of an ounce of tea daily to each soldier during warm weather. Experience has determined that tea is a healthy drink and easily prepared for and distributed among the men in the trenches. The supply depots also have been authorized to issue four-fifths of a pint of wine daily to each man.

London, May 21.—(8:40 p. m.)—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from Amsterdam says:

"General Von Bissing, the German governor-general in Belgium has published the Belgian budget for 1915. It gives the revenue for the year as $35,031,906 and the expenditure at $39,631,906. The statement says that means for providing for a deficit of $4,600,000 will have to be found later."

London, May 21.—(8:25 p. m.)—An intimation that German Zeppelin airships probably will use bombs charged with poisonous gases if they make raids on London is contained in a notice issued by Scotland Yard tonight. To the caution previously given that the public should take refuge in houses in order to be out of the way of the fragments of shells which might be fired at enemy airship craft is the following added injunction:

"It would be well for persons thus taking refuge to keep all windows and doors on lower floors closed so as to prevent the admission of deleterious gas."

London, May 21.—(7:55 p. m.)—"Since my last communication of the seventeenth," says Sir John French, the British commander-in-chief in an official statement made public tonight, "the operations have been hampered by the weather. But in spite of this our troops have made appreciable progress east and south of LaQuinque (near Neuve Chapelle.) The main characteristics of these operations have been numerous local attacks on the enemy's positions, and the capture of a number of prisoners. The day was a very successful one for us."

$10,000 for Negro Coachman—The will of Harvey Barkley of Danville who died April 23, has been probated. The widow is named as administratrix and she was compelled to furnish a bond of a half million dollars; she will receive between $850,000 and $950,000. The negro coachman has $10,000 held in trust for him.

Scarlet Fever at Bluffs—In as much as Scarlet Fever is prevalent in Bluffs in a small way, and the source is not known, it would be best to keep the children off the streets and apart from one another for about two weeks. It does not seem to originate from the school as some have taken it that don't attend school.—Bluffs Times.

Plan State Highway—The meeting of business and professional men of the various cities through central Illinois between Terre Haute and Litchfield, held at the Litchfield Mercantile club for the purpose of considering plans for the state way between the two cities named and to pass through the various cities of this section of the state, was well attended and much enthusiasm manifested.

Attacked by Bull—James Willsey of Pittsfield was attacked by a vicious bull Monday morning while planting corn on the Underwood farm west of town, and suffered three broken ribs and a number of painful bruises. His back was also injured. Willsey had got down from the planter and was in a stooping position adjusting the wire when the animal attacked him from behind.

Increase of Wages—An agreement for increased wages was reached today between the East St. Louis & Suburban Electric railway and its conductors and motormen. Beginning May 1, 1916, the wages of the employees on city runs are to be advanced from 26.3 cents to 27c an hour and the wages of those on suburban runs from 27.3 cents to 28 cents.

Astoria Wins Light Fight—Astoria has won the fight against the Central Illinois Public Service Co. Monday night the Service company signed a contract with the village board of Astoria to give them thirty 400-candle power lights, the same candle power that has been in use at $45 per light per year, from dusk until midnight. Astoria has been paying for these same lights $60 per year on moonlight schedule.

fight for strong points behind the enemy's original line. In capturing several of these points our infantry has again displayed great gallantry. "On the remainder of the front there is nothing to report except minor artillery engagements."

"Last night we brought down a German aeroplane in the neighborhood of Ypres."

London, May 21.—(10:45 p. m.)—"The following official communication was issued this evening: "Supplementing the previous reports of the importance of the defeat suffered by the Germans in their attack on the Ypres during the night of May 20-21, we captured 150 prisoners and took several mine throwers. The ground was strewn with more than 500 German dead. The weather having improved our troops on the slope of Notre Dame de Lorette made an attack which succeeded brilliantly. We have taken the German fortified works called 'the white way' (LaBlanche Voie) which is situated on the only one of the five southern ridges of the Lorette hill which was still partially in the hands of the enemy. From this point the Germans with their mitrailleuses were considerably hampered, our action as also was the case on the plateau and to the west of Souchez."

"The entire Lorette hill and the lesser ridges which the enemy had defended fiercely for more than six months are therefore in our power. In addition we have captured that section of Abbe St. Nazaire which linked the 'white way' works to the northern end of the village still occupied by the enemy."

"In this fighting we captured more than 250 prisoners, several of them officers. We also took a cannon of the enemy."

"The enemy replied to our success here with a very violent bombardment. They have not, however, counter-attacked."

"The day was uneventful on the rest of the front."

USE NEW BUG TO MAKE PLANTS GROW

English Scientist Claims to Have Made Important Discovery.

London, May 21.—American agriculturalists are to be aided by Professor W. B. Bottomley of Kings College, University of London, in introducing across the sea the new bug which he has discovered. This bacteria, which is cultivated in peat, is reported to have given marvelous results on grain and vegetables.

In the past two years, Prof. Bottomley has conducted experiments at Kew Gardens and elsewhere with his "bacterized peat" and so wonderful have been the results that he is testing it in large areas of land. The results are termed as "a new method of intensive culture of the nitrogen-fixing bacteria in the soil." Recently Prof. Bottomley showed a jar of tomatoes which were grown in soil which had been baked to kill all life in it, before the tomato seeds were planted therein. Then the soil was watered with a very weak solution of the bacterized peat, and the tomatoes flourished.

"It is a bug that does it all," said the professor. "Our first difficulty was to find him, and then to nurture him. There is no telling where it will all end. It may revolutionize agriculture, who knows? In recent years, evidence has been accumulated that organic matter of soil with myriads of bacteria inhabitants is the most essential factor of soil fertility. The decay of organic matter produces humus. This material furnishes food and energy for numerous soil bacteria, and is gradually converted by them into substances, and they also render the mineral food constituents of the soil available for plants. Thus a new humus theory of soil fertility is gradually evolving as the result of modern research."

The peat used by Prof. Bottomley contains in its raw state an abundance of organic matter which, when effectively decomposed, is said to be the most valuable of all feed for plants, the principal agents of decomposition being certain bacteria of the soil.

WINCHESTER

Mrs. W. H. Kinison and daughter, Helen, are spending a few days with relatives in Jacksonville.

Miss Kate Ellis has returned to her home in White Hall after a short visit here.

Miss Ann Miner of Ft. Collins, Colo., who is visiting at the home of Dr. James Miner, left Friday for Jacksonville to visit Miss Helen Miner at Illinois Woman's college.

Misses Ruby Smith and Callie Moes arrived home Friday from Jacksonville where they attended the Rebeckah assembly.

Miss Minnie Priest of Jacksonville has been here since Thursday visiting relatives and attending the commencement.

The funeral of Mrs. John Haney of Alsey was held at 10 o'clock Friday morning and burial was made in the Wilson cemetery. Mrs. Haney's maiden name was Wilson and she was a cousin of James Wilson of Winchester.

A REMARKABLE OATS CROP.—Samuel Henry of Woodson was in the city yesterday and said on the farm of his father there was a field of oats, 35 acres in size, in which much of the crop was, beginning to head out. The field was very rich as it had been used as a feed lot for a good while and afterward planted four years in corn and this year in oats. Not all the field is heading out but a considerable part of it. The stalks were from fourteen to twenty inches high. The oats are of the Texas variety, and the sowing was done the latter part of March.

NEW ENGLAND COLLEGES

Boston, May 21.—The track and field championships of the New England colleges will be held on Tech field today and tomorrow. The trial heats will be run off today in the sprints.

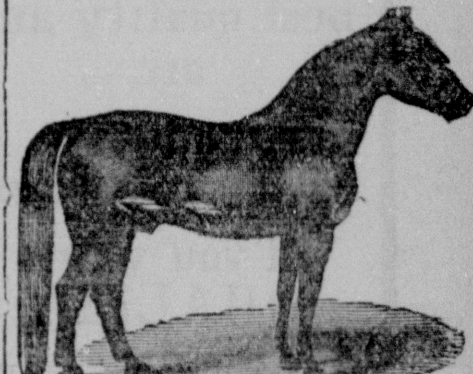

EARLY MORNING

When the eastern sky is shining with the first bright tints of day, sluggards, on their beds reclining, throw the best of life away.

He is but a horrid warning who will sleep and dream and snore, when the birds of early morning sing and twitter at his door. I am old and bent and busted, and by day I feel my years, and at night I'm so disgraced I could shed all kinds of tears; but when comes the wondrous breaking of a new and perfect dawn, I forget my ills and aching, all my weight of age seems gone. I whose heart was lately sorer than a grizzly with a grouch, hail the beauty of Aurora, as she rises from her couch, hail her with a song of gladness, for I feel my youth renewed, and I dump the load of sadness over which I'm wont to brood. Something in the splendid dawning makes the kicker think he's small, and he feels like straightaway pawning all his bile ducts and his gall. I behold that scene majestic, and I turn around and say, to Jimmie, our domestic, "I'll forget my grouch today."

CHICAGO DOWNS BOSTON IN SEVENTEEN INNINGS

PLAY THE LONGEST GAME OF THE SEASON.

Is Faber's Seventh Straight Victory—Daily Bats for Faber with Bases Filled in Seventeenth and Brings in Winning Run with a Single.

Chicago, May 21.—Chicago and Boston played the longest game of the season today, the former winning 3 to 2 after seventeen innings. This was Faber's seventh straight victory.

Mays weakened in the seventeenth inning. Weaver doubled and Quinnan was hit by a pitched ball. Schalk beat out a hit and Daly batted for Faber with the bases filled. He singled to left and Weaver scored the winning run.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The following docket entries were made yesterday by Judge Burton:

In the suit of James Deatherage vs. Harvey Burns, bill to quiet title; the demurrer was sustained and the complainant was given leave to amend.

In the ejectment suit of W. H. Lamkular against E. N. Hairgrove, an order was entered indicating that the parties to the suit have agreed that the case shall be heard by the court without a jury.

In the trespass suit of Charles Tomhave against J. H. Vortman, the jury returned a verdict in favor of the defendant. The action was the result of some difference about a boundary line. It was set forth in the testimony that years ago a hedge was planted five or six feet away from the division fence and that subsequently when the fence disappeared the hedge was considered the boundary line. Subsequently when the defendant in the case caused a portion of the hedge to be cut down the complainant brought suit for damages.

The court without a jury is now engaged in hearing the presentation of the assumpt suit of J. H. Branner vs. William Jones. This is the result of a disagreement between a landlord and tenant over rent alleged to be due. The tenant claims that he is entitled to certain setoffs on account of labor performed and improvements made.

DECORATION DAY ORATOR, REV. W. J. LIBBERTON

The veterans are fortunate in securing for Decoration day orator, Rev. W. J. Libberton of Chicago, an eloquent divine and loyal veteran of the civil war.

Mr. Libberton is a native of Scotland but came to this country in 1854 and is a thorough going citizen of the United States. He studied for the ministry and served the Methodist Episcopal church until advancing years called for a rest and though superannuated he continues to preach a great deal. He is a worthy man and has a fine reputation for eloquence and sincerity.

He was a member of Co. G, 134th Ill. Infantry, the 4th Chicago Board of Trade Infantry and is past commander of Geo. H. Thomas Post G. A. R., Chicago.

Comrade Q. H. Chapin is to come with him to this city and the comrades and public generally will hear a fine address.

WORLD'S MARKET NEWS

BULLISH CROP REPORTS CARRY WHEAT PRICES SHARPLY HIGHER

Speculators Seem to Give Attention Almost Wholly to Question of how Great had Been Damage to Domestic Crop.

Chicago, May 21.—Bullish crop reports including an estimate that the yield in Kansas and Oklahoma would be 64,000,000 bushels less than was harvested last year carried wheat prices today sharply higher. The close was strong at 13c to 3 3/4c net advance.

Corn values gained 1/2c and 1c and oats 3/4c to 1c.

In provisions, the outcome varied from the decline to a rise of 5c.

Wheat speculators appeared to give attention almost wholly to the question of how great had been the amount of injury to the domestic crop. Despite the acuteness of the war situation, foreign news was scarcely considered. The first upturn in the market came from advances sent by a leading Chicago expert touring southern Illinois and Indiana.

He asserted that a large acreage would prove worthless and that in other fields the damage was greater than had heretofore seemed probable. Later the slashing of Kansas and Oklahoma estimates led to even heavier buying and to a fresh bulge in prices.

Improvement in cash demand northwest and at the seaboard formed about the only influence that aside from crop damage seemed to call for notice. It was said millers were competing sharply for wheat, especially at Duluth, and that there was little if any chance of receipts increasing either there or at Minneapolis.

Advanced prices for corn resulted in the main from the action of wheat. Weather conditions were against the bears but at first had been more than offset by the weakness of cables. Oats reflected the strength of other cereals. Besides country offerings were small and stocks rapidly being reduced.

NURSE RELIEVES MUCH SUFFERING

The Patient She Helped Makes Interesting Statement.

Madison, Wis.—Mrs. Oscar Day, of 1606 Monona Ave., Fair Oaks, this town, says: "Before my baby was born, I suffered terribly with womanly troubles and nervousness, and was living in a state of fear all the time."

One day, an old friend of mine, who, by the way, is a nurse, and goes around to all cases, brought me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and told me to keep on taking it right along. I did, and felt much better after the first bottle. I kept on taking it, and had as little trouble as anybody could wish for. Feeling very good now.

There never was a better medicine for women than Cardui, and I will recommend it to any one who is in need of it. This nurse uses Cardui with her patients, so it is well known all around here.

I am never without a bottle of Cardui in my home."

We urge you to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, for your troubles. It will help you over the hard places, just as it has thousands of other women.

Don't delay. Begin taking Cardui today. You won't regret it. NCR5

FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE BROUGHT UNDER CONTROL

"Swat the Fly Before It Flies" is the Slogan Now Made by Citizens—Some Valuable Suggestions About the Home Garden—Battle of Statistics.

In a county in Illinois where the foot and mouth disease was prevalent in November and December, quarantine measures and the destruction of infected and exposed animals had apparently brought it under control. A couple of weeks since, however, there was a fresh outbreak, the first in over sixty days, and the quarantine restrictions were once more imposed. Naturally the farmers in this quarantined area are feeling blue. They have fat stock on hand which has already been quarantined. A couple of weeks since, however, they had been carrying on their usual business, and the quarantine restrictions were once more imposed. Naturally the farmers in this quarantined area are feeling blue. They have fat stock on hand which has already been quarantined.

New York, May 21.—That the "German Kultur" which we read so much about is not a German invention at all, but an American one, and that Benjamin Thompson of Woburn, Mass., later regent of Bavaria, is the man from whose brain it sprung, is the claim made by Professor Franklin H. Giddings, America's greatest sociologist.

"His social efficiency program," the professor says, "adopted by Germany and yet to be adopted by all the world to its lasting profit, was made in Massachusetts. Thus are Americans to be saved from the necessity of accepting a German-made view of public responsibility for universal efficiency."

The life of Benjamin Thompson, better known to fame as Count Rumford, was a stirring romance if ever a life was a stirring tale of genius achieving its full stature in spite of adverse circumstances. Thompson was born poor and obscure in 1753. So slightly and unpromising was the youth that he was held up as a shining example of the "no account" boy. He failed at everything, and began teaching school at Rumford, N. H., now Concord. He married a rich widow, but when the Revolution broke out he was a Tory, and his life in America was hopeless. He went to England. Like magic his career changed. He made startling inventions and was honored by England and France. At 31 he went to Bavaria, and though he did not know the German language, was given the task of reorganizing the military department. At 34 he was a major general, and at 36 minister of war. The next year he was made chief of the regency, and Bavaria was put into his hands. He made the army over, established schools, abolished beggary, and contrived a system of poor relief. He went in for domestic economy, and studied even cooking and fuel-saving and the warming and ventilating of houses. He claimed waste lands, he created government stock farms. Efficiency was his aim, and he put it into practice in every phase of life. When he was created a Count, he took for his title "Rumford."

Prof. Giddings classifies Benjamin Thompson with Benjamin Franklin and Jonathan Edwards as the three greatest Americans that ever lived.

ASHLAND.

Sarah Jane Skelton, was born Aug. 7, 1828 in Gibson county, Ind., and departed this life, Thursday afternoon, May 13, 1915 at one o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. T. McCauley, Middletown, Ill. She was united in marriage to Jerome B. Paul, Nov. 20, 1855. They were the parents of seven children, four of whom preceded their parents in death. Those left are Mrs. J. P. McKee, Dwight, Ill.; Mrs. L. T. McCauley, Middletown, Ill.; Mrs. C. E. Hays, Lottant, Ill.; also four grandchildren and five great grandchildren; besides many dear friends who will long miss her from their midst.

She came to Illinois, settling in McDonough county. Two years later she came to Morgan county, which was her home until the death of her husband, which occurred, Feb. 11, 1910. In the year of 1858 she united with the Cumberland Presbyterian church of McDonough county. In the year of 1860 she joined by letter the Methodist church of Ashland, where her membership remained until God called her home. Since the death of her husband she has been lovingly and tenderly cared for by her daughters, Mrs. L. T. McCauley of Middletown, Ill., and Mrs. C. E. Hays of Lottant, Ill. She was a faithful wife, and a devoted mother. Death loves a shining mark.

A mother's love—
What is a mother's love?
How sweet the name.
A noble, pure and tender flame
Enkindled from above.
To bless a heart of earthly mold;
To warmest love that can't grow cold.

This is a mother's love.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist church at Ashland Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. E. Artz after which the body was taken to Yatesville cemetery and laid to rest beside the grave of her companion. The bearers were S. K. Latham, W. C. True, Charles Holmes, A. J. Brown, Stimp Jones and Bert Lynn.

Swat the Fly Before It Flies.

A great deal has been said and written during the last few years about fly-swatting campaigns. It is generally recognized that a very large part, probably 95 per cent, of all house flies are hatched in collections of manure, especially horse manure. It is very important, therefore, that all manure be hauled to the fields and the stables kept free from collections of manure during the spring and summer months at least.

This involves no hardship on farmers because by spreading the fresh manure directly they save all the most valuable fertilizing elements and by so doing swat the flies before they become flies.

Swatting the flies and using fly traps are useful in that they lessen the number of annoying flies, but their use is like giving medicine to relieve painful symptoms of a disease. We should treat not the symptoms but the disease itself. To treat the disease we must prevent the flies from breeding.

The Home Garden.

"The value of the home garden is not as fully appreciated or as highly developed as it might easily be," says Professor L. M. Montgomery of the College of Agriculture at Columbus.

He says further that the real worth of the garden depends upon the variety and constancy of its products. The average farm garden produces a great quantity of certain vegetables for short periods, but does not produce a succession of crops throughout the season.

"We should plan our garden so that the family may be supplied with peas over a period of 2 months instead of the 2 weeks or less which is more common period. Lettuce, beets, carrots and many other crops should be obtainable in the most tender and edible form throughout the season instead of for short periods in early spring.

"There are two methods of securing the desired succession of crops, first by selecting varieties, which planted at the same time, will mature their products at different dates. Second, by making successive plantings of one or two varieties of the same kind of crop throughout the early spring and summer or in some cases until early fall.

"Many vegetable crops mature very quickly and in order that the ground may be easily controlled the weeks should again be planted to space other short season crops. For example, early lettuce and radishes may be followed by beets, carrots, beans, late cabbage, or celery; and early beets or carrots may be followed by lettuce, beans, winter radish or spinach.

"By consistent planning, the garden may be made the most productive and valuable half acre on any farm."

Honey on the Farm.

Honey is looked upon too often as a luxury. It is true that honey, especially comb honey, is a delicacy in that it takes the place of jam and jelly. In Europe, however, honey is a household article and is used to a considerable extent to replace sugar in cookery. The claim is made that it is a comparatively simple matter to substitute honey for sugar or molasses in many recipes and that the resulting flavor is often novel and pleasing. Ice cream made with instead of sugar will keep soft and fresh for months, and cakes, especially those in which butter is not used have been kept fresh for several months.

The United States Department of Agriculture has made a rather extensive investigation concerning the uses of honey and have just published Farmers' Bulletin 653, "Honey and its Uses in the Home" which may be secured for the asking. This bulletin not only contains much general information concerning honey, its forms, method of making, and its uses, but also many recipes in which it constitutes an important ingredient.

Comb honey is practically certain to be pure because the processes by which it is adulterated cost more than they will save. Formerly there was a very prevalent idea that extracted honey, that is, honey removed from the comb, was often adulterated. However, recent legislation regarding adulterating food materials has been such that very little, if any, adulterated honey finds its way to market.

It is not necessary, however, for farmers to depend on buying honey, because every farm should have its complement of from one to a half dozen hives of bees.

A Warning to Phosphate Buyers.

Each spring brings forth some new scheme for separating people from their money.

Not long ago a man visited Illinois purporting to own a phosphate mine very rich in phosphorus and worth $1,500,000. He wished to make contracts with different landowners to supply them with phosphorus for several years ahead.

There are several noteworthy points about the proposition.

1. Cash was to be paid for the contract.

2. No plant for the grinding of the phosphate has as yet been started.

3. In the final settlement the farmer gets his phosphate at half price.

What do you think of the ear marks?

A Little History.

In 1910 this same individual sold phosphate to some Illinois farmers at a price much higher than it was then being sold by actual producers, collecting $3.00 per ton in advance on it and claiming to own a mine, as he has claimed this time. He made another collection on this same order in a Tennessee city and then gave the order to a reliable phosphate company to fill. This company filled the order and learned afterward about the collections made on it. The company suffered a large loss in straightening the matter out.

The people who purchased the phosphate wrote, too late, to a postmaster and a banker to whom the man referred them and learned that neither had ever heard of him or his company. Some of our own bankers have written to banks to whom this man referred and have received the reply that so far as their knowledge goes he is not worth a dollar.

When you buy rock phosphate buy only of a firm that is in operation and has an established reputation. Such a firm will send you the phosphate without receiving their pay in advance, and you can satisfy yourself as to the quality of the shipment before making settlement for it.—Ch. Oathout, Champaign County Advisor.

In the rounding out of the National Dairy Show for 1913, one of the ideas worked out during the show was a "Round Table Conference" of the Dairy Industry. At this table there sat three delegates from thirty Industrial and Educational branches of Dairy activities, and from this Conference there was evolved, an Organization to meet each year with the Show, called the "Council of the National Dairy Show." The Council has served a more or less useful existence, but the ravages of the Foot and Mouth disease among the Dairy Cattle the past winter, with a subsequent jeopardy to the cattle breeding industry, and an enormous loss to the dairymen, together with a generally demoralized outlook for markets for Dairy Products, as a result of European War conditions, and many disturbing home economic problems, have aroused the active men of the dairy industry to the necessity of galvanizing the Council into an active, potent force for the paupering and protection of the whole Dairy industry.

For this purpose, a meeting of the organized life associated with Dairying, was held in Chicago, April 16th, and some of the most able men engaged in the various Dairy pursuits, were present, and it was deemed wise to enlarge the scope of the Council, and to change its name to "The National Dairy Council," which was done on April 24th, at a second meeting. At these meetings, representatives from the following Associations were present: The American Association of Creamery, Butter Manufacturers, and the National Creamery Butter Makers' Association; the National Association of Ice Cream Manufacturers; the Milk Producers' Association; the International Milk Dealers' Association; the American Jersey Cattle Club; the Holstein-Friesian Association of America; the Ayrshire Breeders' Association; the American Guernsey Cattle Club; the Brown Swiss Cattle Breeders' Association; the Machinery Exhibitors' Association, as also many prominent individuals.

The object of this Organization, as set forth in the Constitution, is as follows: "To advance the cause of Dairying in America, by promoting the Dairy Cow, and all interests dependent upon her, through co-operative and united effort." The language employed in setting forth the object of this Council does not really need amplification, but that it may be made to read in the simplest possible language, it may be said that the whole problem of Dairying before the farmer, is quality with quantity for better profit, and to this end, a campaign to replace unprofitable cows with those of better breeding, by utilizing the lowest purchase cost method, is to be pushed by this Council, and every legitimate aid rendered to its successful conclusion, good cows plus good feed equals increased revenue for our dairymen, better milk, better butter, better ice cream, better cheese follow as natural sequences, and the result must be increased consumption of Dairy Products.

The membership of the council is limited only to those engaged in any character of business related in any manner with the Dairy Cow as shown in the following Constitutional clause: Any person, corporation or association interested in Dairying may become a member of this council." The membership and support is purely voluntary, and membership application cards will be issued to all of the Dairy interests.

WEEKS DEVELOPMENTS DISCLOSE SOME INDUSTRIAL IRREGULARITY

Wet or Cold Weather Checks Distributive Trade, While Employment Is Increasing, War Orders Causing Extraordinary Speed at Some Centers.

New York, May 21.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

"While trade and industrial activity continue to move along generally favorable lines the week's developments disclose some irregularity on the one hand, wet or cool weather has checked distributive trade and especially retail business and at the same time unsettled international political buyers in some lines to go slow while the same factor holds up certain speculative projects. But on the other hand industry is more active, employment is increasing and war orders continue to cause extraordinary speed at a number of centers.

"Jobbing trade in essential appears to be on a par with, if not above last year. Mail order houses are doing well. High prices for cereals insure prosperity for farming communities and crop conditions notwithstanding reports of insect damage to winter wheat, are unusually good. Railway traffic is increasing, buying of steel by the railroads is larger, bank clearings, though lighter than last week, display gains over one and two years ago and in some places collections seem to be better.

"Bank clearings for the week, $3,269,953,000."

Good of the order—Minerva Lobdell, No. 221; Dorothy Crowder, No. 577; Clara Edwards, No. 605.

The visiting delegates were especially pleased with the meals served by the ladies of Grace M. E. church and expressed themselves thus in a hearty manner.

The next meeting, May, 1916, will be held at Auburn.

The exemplification of the degree work was given by the degree staff of Franklin lodge No. 103. The class which was given the work consisted of the following: J. A. Hastings, Ada Hastings, W. N. Naylor, Mary Naylor, W. W. Baldwin, Edna Corrington, Anna Shaw, Ada Smith and Laura Opperman.

Former Senator Bailey Presents Bank's Opposition to Motion to Dismiss Temporary Injunction.

Washington, May 20.—Argument became contentious and bitter today in the case of the Riggs bank against the secretary of the treasury, the comptroller of the currency and the treasurer, as former Senator Bailey presented to Justice McCoy the bank's opposition to the motion to dismiss the temporary injunction granted against the treasury officials.

Mr. Bailey's argument began with a clash between himself and Justice McCoy, which led to the lawyers threatening to withdraw from the case after a rebuke from the bench.

Later, as Mr. Bailey continued he was interrupted time after time by Samuel Undermyer, of counsel for the defendants, who disputed his interpretation of the facts. The interruption on several occasions precipitated rather heated exchanges.

HEROES IN THE TRENCHES.

Paris, Feb. 2.—These men in the trenches must keep incessant vigilance against sudden attacks by the enemy. The men who serve the artillery fire day and night oftentimes at an enemy that is never seen.

Medical science will save more lives this year than war will take, no matter how terrifically murderous that war may be. Then, too, the food supply is very carefully looked after by the commissariat. The food supply of the soldiers must be wholesome. Living in the open air, the men are able to digest hard-tack with great relish. Napoleon said, "An army fights on its stomach."

A man with a weak stomach is pretty sure to be a poor fighter. It is difficult—almost impossible—for anyone, man or woman, if digestion is poor, to succeed in business or social—or to enjoy life. In tablet or liquid form Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery helps weak stomachs to strong, healthy action—helps them to digest the food that makes the good, rich, red blood which nourishes the entire body.

This vegetable remedy, to a great extent, puts the liver into activity—oils the machinery of the human system so that those who spend their working hours at the desk, behind the counter, or in the home are rejuvenated into vigorous health.

It has brought relief to many thousands every year for nearly fifty years. It can relieve you and doubtless restore your former health and strength. At least you owe it to yourself to give it a trial. Sold by medicine dealers or send 50 cents for box of tablets.—Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

You can have Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Advisor of 1108 pages in cloth binding, fully illustrated with colored plates, for 3 dimes or 30 cents.

Read all about yourself, your system, the physiology of life, sex problems, marriage relations, anatomy, hygiene exercise, disease and its prevention, simple home cures.

NORTH CAROLINA VS. ALABAMA

Controversy Over Origin of Flag of Confederacy to be Settled.

Richmond, Va., May 21.—The United Confederate veterans, who will meet in Richmond, the old capital of the Confederacy next month, for their twentieth, and perhaps their last reunion, will be called upon to settle for all time the long-waged controversy between Alabama and North Carolina, as to who was the designer of the battle flag of the south.

The honor of having designed the stars and bars, which are treasured in the south today as they were a half century ago, is claimed by both states. Orren Randolph Smith, of Louisville, N. C., who was a major in the confederate army, and served twice under the stars and stripes, completed his design and raised it upon a flagstaff at Louisville on February 12, 1861. Nicola Marshall, a draughtsman, a native of Alabama, now a resident of Louisville, Ky., claims to have originated the design in his studio, that it was later taken to Governor Moore of Alabama, who showed it with two other suggestions of Mr. Marshall to prominent men of the south, and that his design was thus selected.

The two designs, which appear to be similar, were both made early after the outbreak of hostilities. It is expected the decision will be based on the time each was first shown, the earliest to receive the honor.

Major Smith's flag, which is now the authorized emblem of the Daughters of the Confederacy, was made early in February, while Marshall's design was rendered at Marion, Ala., in the latter part of April or early in May, 1861. Both claim that it was their design that was accepted by the committee of the Southern Congress at Montgomery, Ala., as the flag of the confederacy.

At the recent general convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, held at Savannah, a committee was provided to co-operate with similar committees of the confederate veterans, the Sons of Confederate Veterans and the Confederate Memorial association, for the purpose of determining who was the designer of the flag, thus settling the controversy. The matter comes officially before the veterans for the first time next month.

Major Smith, who had seen service with Taylor in Mexico and with Johnston in Utah, purchased some dress goods and secured the services of Miss Rebecca Murphy to sew the flag. Miss Murphy was assisted by her aunt and Miss Nora Styles. The major then spliced two poles into one and flew his flag at a height of 100 feet. Miss Murphy is still living, and is now Mrs. W. R. Winburne of Wilson, N. C. Her sister, Miss Sally Ann, refused to sew on the flag, saying she was for the union, and meant to marry a Yankee officer. She did marry James A. Miller, a lieutenant in the union army.

The design originated by Mr. Marshall was made at the request of Mrs. Napoleon Lockett, mother of Col. Samuel H. Lockett. She stood by and made suggestions while Marshall painted three designs on a card. According to Marshall, these designs were taken by Mrs. Lockett to Governor Moore of Alabama, who in turn submitted them to men of prominence. This claim of Alabama has been endorsed by Mrs. Chappell Coery, of Roebuck Springs, that state, president of the Alabama division of the Daughters of the Confederacy. The North Carolina division of the Daughters is behind the claim of Major Smith, as is also his daughter, Miss Jessica Smith, of Fayetteville, who is already known generally among the veterans as the "Daughter of the Stars and Bars."

Both sides in this unique controversy are armed with many affidavits substantiating their various claims, and these will be submitted to the committee which will determine the authentic origin of the Stars and Bars.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY FAVORS NEW STATE BUILDING

Believes Dedication Would Form Interesting Feature at Centennial Celebration.

The Illinois State Historical society has added its endorsement to the plan of the Illinois Centennial Commission for the dedication of a new state building at Springfield to form a feature of the Illinois Centennial celebration in 1918. At the annual meeting of the Historical society, held last week, resolutions were adopted commending the plan and recommending to the General Assembly the immediate acquisition of a site for the new building.

According to the plan that has been worked out, the only appropriation asked for at the present time is to pay the State's part of the one hundred thousand dollars to the fund to purchase the ground. The site selected upon is the two square blocks adjoining the present capitol grounds on the south. If the ground is secured in the next two years the next general assembly can make provision for starting the building operations, so that formal dedication of the grounds may take place during Centennial year.

Under the plan recommended by the State Education Building Commission, which was created by the legislature four years ago, it is proposed to acquire sufficient ground to meet the building requirements of the state for years to come, with the idea of placing the whole in a way that will be a credit to the state. The building necessary to meet the present needs of the state department would be placed so that additional buildings might be erected in the future without destroying the harmony of the whole group.

PLAN FOR FOURTH OF JULY

Secretary Weber of the Chamber of Commerce has tentative plans in view for an old-fashioned celebration of the Fourth of July in Jacksonville. During recent days he has talked with quite a number of merchants about it and practically all of them are in favor of a celebration this year. If arrangements are finally made the plan no doubt will be to have all the daytime activities on the public square, with the fireworks in the evening at Nichols park. It will be the idea to have attractions of the kind which formerly made Fourth of July celebrations interesting and also some more modern ideas of entertainment. It is likely that the plan will take definite shape sometime during the coming week.

GROUP EIGHT BANKERS HAD SPLENDID MEETING

Governor Dunne and Other Prominent Speakers Appeared on Program—Support Pledged to Pres. Wilson.

Fully 150 bankers attended the meeting of group eight of the Illinois bankers association at Ashland Friday. The program was accounted one of the strongest ever prepared for a group meeting and the day proved one of very great interest. Gov. Dunne discussed the Illinois deep waterway bill which he has given his support and the bankers afterward went on record as favoring its passage. They also gave a vote of commendation to the general assembly for passing the resolution which will make it possible to submit to the voters a constitutional amendment for the revision of taxation laws.

Other speakers besides the governor were Dr. R. E. Heironymous of the University of Illinois, E. D. Hurlbert of the Merchants Loan & Trust Co. of Chicago, and George E. Allen, director of the American institute of banking.

The dinner was served in the M. E. church and it was followed by a two hour period of speech making with E. E. Crabtree as the toastmaster.

Among those whose oratory was notable were J. S. Aithorpe of Cairo, W. G. Edens of Chicago, Dr. R. E. Heironymous of Champaign, S. B. Montgomery of Quincy, Walter Reardon and Fred Walbaum of Ashland. The Rainbow party of Chicago bankers added greatly to the enjoyment of the dinner with their songs and stork.

The bankers adopted a strong resolution endorsing the course of President Wilson in dealing with Germany and pledged him support in whatever further action he may take. Officers were chosen as follows: Chairman—F. T. Jurgens, Petersburg; Vice Chairman—H. O. Tunison, White Hall; O. P. Buße, Jacksonville.

Secretary and treasurer—E. H. Fanning, Bowen. Members of the executive council of the state—J. R. Pearce, Quincy. S. B. Montgomery of Quincy was recommended to the American Bankers association as a member of the executive council. Local bankers who attended were Andrew Russell, E. E. Crabtree, O. F. Buße, C. A. Johnson, C. B. Graff, R. I. Duplay and Homer Potter.

Miss Elston Barnes left last night for the east and will visit friends in Northampton and Boston. Miss Barnes goes at this time especially for the purpose of attending a reunion of her class at Smith college.

SWEATER QUESTION IS REVIVED AT HIGH SCHOOL

Athletes Who Secure Garments Compelled to Return Them—Dick Reynolds Suspended.

After laying dormant for several weeks, the sweater question came to life again at the high school, as the result of several of the athletes securing the much coveted garments and wearing them upon the streets. The sweaters in question were purchased last fall for the members of the football team. At about the same time of the purchase the matter of receiving them was brought to the attention of Superintendent Collins, who looked up the rules of the Illinois High School Athletic association, which forbade any student from receiving a reward of any kind having a value of more than one dollar who participated in inter-school athletics. Suspension for one year was to be the punishment accorded any school for violation of this rule.

The football boys at that time were informed of the ruling and all signed an agreement that they would not receive the sweaters. For the past two days Supt. Collins has been in conference with the young men and as a result all agreed to take the penalty and return the sweaters except Dick Reynolds. The time set for the returning of the garments was two o'clock yesterday and as Mr. Reynolds did not appear at that time he was suspended. Reynolds is a member of the senior class.

The penalty for securing the sweaters is summed up in the statement Supt. Collins made to the athletes Friday morning: "You return your sweater to Mr. Brennan and report to this office before two p. m. that you have done so; and further agree that you will not receive that sweater until after school is closed, which is the next day after commencement; and that you will be in the school building Monday morning and study under the supervision of one of the high school teachers, from 9:30 to 12 m. and from 1:30 to 3:30 p. m.; that in the event you do not agree to this proposition, you may consider yourself suspended from school at two p. m. this day, Friday."

SOCIAL EVENTS

Past Noble Grands Entertain Officers.

Officers of the Rebekah State assembly in the city for the twenty-second district convention, and officers of the seventeenth district were special guests Friday afternoon when the Past Noble Grands' circle of Jacksonville Rebekah Lodge No. 13 entertained at Odd Fellows' temple on East State street. The hours were from three till five and the time proved most pleasant for each of the guests. Pink roses were used on the table where refreshments were served, and pink and green, the colors of the order, were made use of throughout. Mrs. Atlanta Martin, Mrs. Frances Ricks and Mrs. Elizabeth Estaque composed the committee which planned so well and hospitably for the pleasure of the visiting Rebekahs. Mrs. Flora Follansbee, oldest living noble grand of Jacksonville lodge, was among the Rebekahs present.

Among the guests were Mrs. Myrtle W. Tandy, president of the Rebekah state assembly; Mrs. Mae E. Crowell of Rockford, the secretary, and Mrs. Cora Neff Phillips of Bushnell, state warden; Mrs. Etta Siegfried, Jacksonville, president of the seventeenth district; Mrs. Anna Claypool of Greenville, the secretary, and Mrs. Sadie Bayha, district treasurer; Mrs. Irene Cooper, Decatur; Mrs. Alice Trees, Peoria and Mrs. Etta K. Bradley, president of twenty-second district; Mrs. Ella Watson Reeve, past state president; Mrs. Anna Simmons of Virginia, a past district president and Mrs. Olive Senard of Havana, past district secretary, sent their regrets to the hostesses of the circle.

Missionary Society Has Annual Election.

Officers for the year ensuing were elected Friday afternoon at the meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society of Centenary M. E. church. The society met for a session of pleasure and profit at the home of Mrs. W. B. Rexroat, 593 East College avenue. The topic of the afternoon was "Alaska" and the program was in charge of Mrs. W. H. Weatherford. Mrs. Alexander had the enigmas and Mrs. P. A. McCarty read a leaflet on the theme. Mrs. McCarty will entertain the society at their next meeting at her home on West College avenue. The officers follow:

President—Mrs. Albert C. Metcalf.
Vice president—Mrs. Lucretia Brown.
Recording secretary—Miss Mercy Jackson.
Corresponding secretary—Mrs. Naomi Whorton.
Treasurer—Mrs. Charles Glossop.
Mite box superintendent—Mrs. William Wilkinson.

Party in Honor of Birthday.

Misses June Pond and Lula Belle Mawson gave a party last night at Nichols park in honor of the birthday of Miss Helen Obermeyer. Supper was taken along and the hours spent in a happy manner. The party included: Misses Helen Obermeyer, Lula Belle Mawson, Jane Pond, Lucile Mason, Rena Rexroat, Marguerite Corrington, Virginia Whitlock, Marion Spooner, and Messrs. Leslie Edelle, Richard Garney, Bright Whistler, Owen Jones, Lawrence Gouveia, Harold Perloff, Wendall Dugger, Paul Strawn.

Handkerchief Shower for Miss Wood.

Mrs. Charles Calliwell gave a handkerchief shower at her home near Pisgah Thursday afternoon for Miss Elizabeth Wood, whose marriage to George Hardwick takes place next Wednesday. In the two guessing contests to entertain the eighteen guests, prizes were won by Mrs. Albert Curry and Mrs. George McKean. In the dining room where the two course luncheon was served, pink and white were the colors used and in the living room, furms and asparagus formed the decorations. Mrs. Curry and Mrs. McKean favored the company with musical selections. The event was planned for the unreserved enjoyment of all and to the credit of the hostess it may be said that complete satisfaction reigned when the pleasant afternoon was brought to a close.

Westminster Guild.

Westminster Guild met Friday afternoon with Mrs. R. R. Stevenson at her home on Prospect street. The program was of unusual interest and afterward the hostess served elaborate refreshments.

LOVERS OF MUSIC CHARMED BY CONCERT

MINNEAPOLIS SYMPHONY ORCHESTER DELIGHTS TWO AUDIENCES.

Artistic Performance by Celebrated Musical Organization Scored a Great Success at the Grand—Soloists Appear to Great Advantage.

Long will the music of the Minneapolis Orchestra linger in the hearts and minds of the large Jacksonville audiences which greeted this wonderful organization in two concerts at the Grand Opera House Friday afternoon and evening. The coming of the orchestra was an event which has been looked forward to with no little interest by Jacksonville music lovers many of whom were personally acquainted with members of the organization, the soloists and the leader, Mr. Oberholfer. The company is out on its ninth annual spring concert and numbers some eighty members.

It is safe to say that Jacksonville has not been visited in years with such an array of talent as was manifested yesterday, and by a conductor who stands so prominently among the leaders of similar organizations. The great secret of the marked success of the Minneapolis Orchestra is naturally due to its leader who has developed musicians into an artistic conception of the works of the great masters. Patience, long suffering, hard work and ability has characterized the life of the musicians and the fruit of their labor is being evidenced each passing year, to a more perfect degree. A story could be written of the artistic worth of each member but a still greater story is that of the entire company, whose ensemble work thrilled the audience and made them sit in wonderment during the program.

Mr. Oberholfer has long been recognized as a genius in his line and his leadership was watched with interest yesterday. He possesses wonderful interpreting ability and always digs deeper than one really imagines, into his selection, until new moods, new lights, unheard of values mark the production under the beat of his baton. His mastery is phenomenal, although his manner is unassuming and unostentatious. It was evidenced to the audience yesterday of what a master building of program Mr. Oberholfer really is. The compositions are so arranged and set against each other as to inspire and create a taste for more, a thirst hard to quench. What was more beautiful and heart stirring than the "Spring song" by Mendelssohn, what more inspiring than the "Woodland Speeches" of the much beloved Mac Dowell. How the music of Tchaikowsky, Saint Saens, Greig, Schubert, Brahms, Verdi, Listz, found a new meaning, revealed new beauty of thought under Oberholfer's baton.

The soloists of the orchestra are Marie Sumelius, soprano; Marion Green, baritone; Cornelius Van Vliet, cello; Alma Beck, contralto; Albert Lindner, tenor; Richard Czernowinski, violinist. It is safe to say that no musical organization presents such an array of artists and they charmed the audiences yesterday by their renditions. All were enthusiastically received and forced to respond to encores. Extras were in demand from the orchestra and it was pleasing to see the gracious manner in which the musicians satisfied the insistent demands of the audience.

BAND CONCERT FUND IS GIVEN AN EXCELLENT START

Complimentary Concert to Be Given at Early Date—Band Will Add Ten Per Cent to All Contributions

Band Concert Fund.
Jacksonville Ry. & L. Co. . . $50.00
Jacksonville Lodge, Elks . . 25.00
Travelers Protective Assn. . . 25.00
United Commercial Travelers 15.00
Mrs. Frank Treitzger 1.00

Total $116.00
10 per cent added by band 11.60
Grand total $127.60

To give impetus to the movement recently inaugurated to raise a fund for a series of band concerts to be given Sunday afternoons and week day evenings at the various parks, it was announced yesterday that the Jeffries Concert band will add ten per cent to all subscriptions made. The further announcement was made that the band will give a complimentary concert in Central park either on the evening of Monday, May 31, or Thursday, June 3.
As previously stated the contributions for the proposed fund will be of a wholly voluntary character. The Courier and the Journal have both agreed to receive subscriptions for the fund and to aid the enterprise in any way that they can. No one will be solicited to contribute but any organization or person who after considering the matter determines upon a contribution of any size is asked to turn over this amount either to the Courier or the Journal. Acknowledgment will be made in both papers.

The fund as indicated above has already received subscriptions amounting to $116, which with the ten per cent of $11.60 by the band, brings the total to $127.60. It is hoped that the public will manifest a generous spirit in this matter and by so doing will give the band deserved support and recognition and at the same time will provide entertainment that all the people will enjoy. The proposition is to give a series of concerts beginning as early in June as possible on week-day evenings and on Sunday afternoons. The concerts would be arranged for Duncan, Central and Nichols park. If the concerts begin the first week in June it will be possible for the series to run through nine weeks before the band leaves to fill the chautauqua engagements. Then following the Jacksonville chautauqua other concerts could be given if desired. The contributions made by the railway and light company, the Elks, and the two traveling men's local organizations, are liberal and afford a good example for other organizations and citizens. No contribution is too large and none too small to be received.

WITH THE SICK.

Word was received in the city yesterday that William G. Russel, who has been sick a long time at his home in Woodson, was in a serious condition.

Mrs. J. G. Fox, 225 Caldwell street, who for several weeks has been ill, shows little improvement in condition according to word from Our Savior's hospital.

Miss Grace Turley of West North street has been confined to her home for several days by indisposition. Mrs. Joseph Rodems is reported quite ill at her home on East State street.

A man in New York or San Francisco with a STRAW HAT bought of FRANK BYRNS this season will see many of the better dressed men wearing the same style Straw Hats. Knox Hats are world renowned.

SAVES CHILD FROM TRAIN.

A. G. Anthony, bill clerk at the Wabash freight office, saved a child of Charles Filkin from probable death Friday forenoon by dragging it from the track as the 8:30 o'clock train for the east was approaching. The child had stepped on the track and the train was very close at hand. Mr. Filkin was on the train, having started for Alexander.
